SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

TNC has two important announcements to make to its subscribers and readers: (1):For the past six years TNC has consisted of 32 pages per issue, a total of 128 pages per year. Beginning with the March 1961 issue, TNC will be increased 4 pages per issue, or 16 pages per year; from 32 pages per issue to 36, from 128 pages per year to 144, not including the annual index! This will be a substantial increase of 12½% in the amount of North Carolina genealogical source material published in TNC. It is hoped that each and every subscriber for 1960 will hereby be encouraged to renew for 1961, so that publication of TNC may continue, and with no increase in the subscription rate (which will remain at $5.00 for 1961). And (2): Around 25% of the space in TNC the past six years has been taken up with the Query Section (50 free words per year per subscriber). While many of the queries have yielded fruitful replies, it is felt by many subscribers that the valuable space taken up by the queries could be put to a better use (and your Editor agrees)--namely, more North Carolina genealogical source material! The Query Section will not be eliminated completely, however. Beginning with the March 1961 issue, queries will appear in and be a part of a new section labelled: CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING. This new CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING section, in addition to queries, will include all types of genealogical ads (genealogical aids, books, and other publications, services, etc.); books wanted; books for sale; pre-publication announcements; and so on). The rates for this CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING section (effective 1 Jan. 1961) will be five cents per word (queries included) for TNC subscribers; and ten cents per word for non-subscribers. Name and address included free of charge on all items of $1.00 and over. The Query Section's "50 words free per year per subscriber" will expire 31 Dec. 1960. However, all queries received prior to the expiration date will appear in future issues of TNC, without charge. This change in the Query Section, and the addition of the CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING section, will surely allow from 10% to 15% more space in TNC for valuable source material!

All 1960 subscriptions to TNC began with the March 1960 issue, and expire with this, the December 1960 issue. TNC will be enlarged and improved for 1961 (see SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT, above); please renew promptly!

TNC's FIVE-YEAR INDEX, 1955-59, is nearing completion, and will be mailed to all who have ordered it, sometime in February, prior to the March, 1961, issue of TNC. If you have not ordered your copy, please send your $3.00 promptly, since a limited number only will be published.

REVIEWS

NOTE: This Reviews section will be eliminated in future issues of TNC, to make room for more North Carolina genealogical source material. Beginning 1 Jan. 1961, persons are invited to use the CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING section of TNC as a means of informing the genealogical world of their efforts (see the SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT on p. 738 of this issue of TNC). Rates: five cents per word for TNC subscribers; ten cents per word for non-subscribers. Books & genealogical publications received up through 31 Dec. 1960 will be reviewed in future issues of TNC. After 1 Jan. 1961, please do NOT send genealogical material to TNC to be reviewed. Instead, place an ad or notice in the CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING section.

WILCOXSON AND ALLIED FAMILIES, by Wulfeck, 1958. This 505-page (8½"x11") volume, unusually well done, contains a wealth of data on the Wilcoxson family (some 30 varied spellings) of Pa., N. The bulk of the volume contains a record of the descendants of this couple (many present-day descendants in N. C.). Illustrated; indexed; data on many allied families. Price: $15. Each section has a separate index in back of the volume. Much valuable data is presented on the Wilford & Williford families, especially of Bertie Co., N. C., and their descendants, as well as on many unplaced families in other N. C. counties, and in other States. Nicely printed and bound; illustrated; indexed. Price: $12.50. ABSTRACT OF DEEDS, BOOK ONE, HALIFAX CO., N. C., by Anderson, 1960. The title to this valuable reference book is a little misleading. Halifax Co., N. C., was formed in 1758 from Edgecombe Co., but Halifax retained custody of the Edgecombe deed books, which date from 1732. Thus, deeds in Edgecombe courthouse date from 1758, and those in Halifax from 1732, even though Halifax Co. deeds proper do not begin until 1758. In other words, those deeds in Halifax Co. courthouse which date from 1732 to 1758 are actually Edgecombe Co. deeds, and not Halifax Co. deeds at all. Mrs. Anderson's abstracts cover from 1732 to 1754 (all of Deed Book 1, and 1st 47 pages of Deed Book 2 in Halifax courthouse), and should have been labelled: EDGECOMBE CO., N. C., DEEDS, 1732-1754. These early Edgecombe deeds are especially valuable since in the 1730's, 1740's, & 1750's Edgecombe covered all or parts of a dozen present-day counties: Edgecombe, Granville, Halifax, Martin, Caswell, Nash, Warren, Franklin, Person, Wilson, Vance, & Durham! 60 pages; 8½"x11"; mimeographed; indexed. Price: $7.50, postpaid. Order from the compiler: Mrs. Leon W. Anderson, Oakland Farm, Route 2, Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina.

CHOWAN COUNTY: 1717 TAX LIST

There are but few early tax lists preserved for Chowan County, North Carolina. One of the very earliest is the one for the year 1717. This one is especially valuable, for at that early date Chowan County embraced an area vastly larger than present-day Chowan County. In 1717 Chowan County took in the present-day counties of: Chowan, Gates (except the eastern fourth), Hertford, Bertie, Martin, and Washington, and parts of Northampton, Halifax, and Edgecombe--an area perhaps 50 miles wide and 50 miles long (2,500 square miles).

The total number of acres on the 1717 list is 212,590, or almost 333 square miles (nearly double the area of present-day Chowan County)--which would indicate that the inhabitants were widely scattered over the 2,500 square miles covered by the tax list. Actually, the inhabitants were, for the most part, concentrated on fertile lowlands along navigable (at least by canoe) streams, with the bulk of the land (perhaps 7/8) as yet unsettled. However, as the population increased, it spread west, southwest, and south, and mingled with settlers from Virginia and elsewhere, who were constantly pouring into the State. New counties were being formed every few years. (See the June, 1956, issue of TNC for names, dates of formation, etc., of the counties of this section of N. C.)

336 heads of families are enumerated in the 1717 listing, which is approximately one family per square miles,based on the total acreage taken up by this date; or an average of one family for every 8 square miles, based on a 2,500 square mile area. The total number of taxables was around 500, including perhaps 100 slaves. Only a dozen families owned several slaves; the bulk of the landholders apparently had few or no slaves.

Of the 336 heads of families, 73, or 22%, owned no land at all. 11 heads of families had less than 100 acres; 46, between 100 & 199; 39, between 200 & 299; 38, between 300 & 399; 27, between 400 & 499; 23, between 500 & 599; 15, between 600 & 699; 6, between 700 & 799; 10, between 800 & 899; 7, between 900 & 999; 29, between 1,000 & 1,999; 3, between 2,000 & 2,999; 3, between 5,000 & 5,999; 4, between 6,000 & 6,999; 1, between 20,000 & 29,999; and 1, between 30,000 & 39,999 acres. Thus approximately half the landowners had less than 300 acres each, and the other half more than 300. The average per head of family was 635 acres, ranging from no land at all to over 30,000.

The two largest landholders were Thomas Pollock, with 30,964 acres (15% of the total of 212,590 acres); and Fred Jones, with 21,095 acres (10% of the total). Thus these two owned 25% of the total taxable acreage. Eleven others owned another 21% of the total: Wm Duckenfield, 6,800 acres; Edwd. Moseley, 6,673; Thomas Lee, 6,000; Wm Maule, 6,000; Robt. West, 4,310; Thos. Bray, 4,040; Jno. Hardy, 4,000; Jno. Blount, Senr., 2,777; Wm Frilie and Jmo. (Jno.?) Swinson, 2,000; and Ant. Williams, 2,200. Thus nearly half the land was owned by thirteen men; the other half by 250 men.

This 1717 Tax List of Chowan is in the Archives in Raleigh, File No. C. R. 2.002, Albemarle Co. Papers, Vol. 2, 1715-1739, and Undated, page 10. In the listing below, number of acres and number of taxables (whites and blacks together) are given for each taxable person listed (the amount of tax has been left out, and may be obtained from the original).

RALEIGH

Wake County, North Carolina (first settled around 1740), was formed in 1771 from parts of Johnston, Cumberland, and Orange Counties, and named for Margaret Wake, wife of Gov. William Tryon (another account says it was named for Lady Tryon's mythical sister, Esther Wake). The courthouse was built at Bloomsbury and was called Wake Courthouse until 1792 when Raleigh was established and became the state capital as well as the county seat.

Raleigh was named for Sir Walter Raleigh (1552-1618), wealthy English explorer and author, who sent five expeditions to Virginia, including the ill-fated Lost Colony of Roanoke Island, North Carolina (1584), England's first American colony.

At least eight towns and cities in the United States bear the name Raleigh. There is a Raleigh in each of the following states: Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Tennessee, and West Virginia. By far the largest and most famous of the eight is Raleigh, North Carolina, with a present population of around 100,000.

It is said that a group of North Carolinians settled in Missouri, and wished to name their newly-founded town in honor of Raleigh, North Carolina. However, none of them could spell Raleigh. That is how Rolla, Missouri, is supposed to have gotten its name.

Of the 3,068 counties in the United States, only one, in West Virginia, is named Raleigh.

Persons doing research on the Raleigh family, especially in England, have found at least fifty-eight different spellings of the name! These interesting spellings are listed below: *

Raghley	Raleikk	Raulaeus	Rawlegh	Rawlyghe
Raghlie	Raleygh	Raule	Rawlei	Raylie

In the Archives, in Raleigh, North Carolina, may be found seven file boxes of loose papers, lebelled: "Comptroller's Papers - Final Settlements" (Box 14: A-C; 15: D-G; 16: H-L; 17: M-P; 18: R-Sl; 19: Sm-T; 20: V-Y). The bulk of the papers are dated in the early 1790's, with a few dated 1770's & 1780's. The soldiers and claimants are listed below, in rough alphabetical order. From a cursory examination of the paper or papers in each folder the residence (in the 1790's, and perhaps not always correct) has been ascertained for most of the claimants. Widely varying amounts of data are given for each individual, and it is recommended that full copies of the original document (or documents) be obtained in each and every instance. Places of residence were frequently changed, and many of the men had moved to other counties and other states by the time the final settlement was made. Also, many were deceased, the final settlement being made with their heirs.
